

In answer to an IQ test that was recently presented by some trick on eves, you are now presented with an opportunity to test your ability to skate through straight days. If any questions and answers are similar from the previous test, it is simply because we never saw the previous test.

STRAIGHT DAY BEGGER QUALIFICATION TEST

The SDBQT score is designed to provide an indication of your ability to perform properly under grueling straight day conditions. It will also provide you with a comparison with others indicating whether you are a qualified straight day beggar or a straight day begged-on. This score will actually reflect on you future since failure to attain a passing score will disqualify you from any future at all. To attain a passing score, you must complete one of the multiple choice questions below with either a right, wrong, or no answer at all, if you can understand that at all. Persons who do not understand these instructions will be credited with the successful completion of one question. DO NOT WRITE ON ANYTHING OTHER THAN THIS TEST BOOKLET. DO NOT BOTHER ABOUT STRAY MARKS OR CORRECTLY MARKING THE ANSWERS SINCE THIS TEST WILL BE GRADED IN THE SAME MANNER THAT YOUR OVERSEAS ASSIGNMENTS ARE PICKED.

There is an additional incentive for those receiving a score of one or better on this test. Forward this test with your answers or no answers at all to MAJ Roger D. Williams, Sinop, Turkey and if you are a winner, you will received the James D. Coates Memorial Straight Day Beggar Award which consists of an official, misspelled, misworded, dirty-elbow-imprinted, straight day begger sertiphiket and one fifth of 192 proof puregrain drinking alcohol (Everclear), the symbol of the straight day beggar.

- Write home to Mommy for guidance and assistance
- Write to Radiation Service Co. for guidance and assistance
- Write to Wayne Shildmeier for guidance and assistance

27. If you were all of a sudden to become OIC STONEHOUSE, you would first:

- Bring the 85 antenna off mission inorder to re-enlist in the dish
- number all the dents in the 150 rail and have them checked every hour
- make enemies with sections on post so all S/H personnel with get dicked away
- run around inspecting church keys
- none of the above since your name isn't Reger D. Williams

If you have answered any of the preceding 27 questions you have qualified as a Straight Bay Beggar and you have proven that you so bored out here that you actually took all this time to read this crap. If you are unable to find any truth in these question don't feel knocked up cause some people actually do these things and they're just part of your Honkey-Gringe-Agnew-Reagan-Unprejudiced-Society which created this whole mess in the first place. The advantage of this is that you can ~~MESS~~ do your doo doo and sit right in the stinkin' middle of it.
